

THE TOWNS AROUND.

DANVILLE.

A Serious Carriage Accident.

As Mrs. Laura Ward of Pumpkin Hill was driving to church Sunday morning she met with a very severe accident. Her horse took a sudden turn in front of the library building and ran the carriage into the park fence. Mrs. Ward was thrown out of the carriage, seriously breaking her shoulder.

A New Postmaster.

Charles H. Wilson has been appointed postmaster here in place of C. S. Dole, present incumbent. Mr. Wilson contemplates enlarging his present place of business by the addition of an adjoining room for the greater convenience of the patrons. It is not expected that the change will be made for some little time yet. Mr. Dole contemplates adding to his present stock of goods in place of the post office a complete line of clothing which would be a desirable addition to the stock of goods at present kept in town.

Personal Chat-Chat.

Miss Lilla Hodgdon is visiting friends in Lyndon.

Miss May Dole teaches this fall at Greensboro.

Frank H. Harris, from Lowell, Mass., is visiting his parents, Col. Harris and wife.

Miss Diamond from Plymouth, Mass., is stopping at John Sias', the guest of Dr. Weaver.

Geo. Greenbanks is at Barre attending the races with his "Daisy." Hope she will get there.

Mrs. W. P. French and her daughter Miss Kate French, of Boston, are at visiting at A. W. Shurtleff's.

Miss Jessie Pennington commenced her second term of school in the hill district in the village last Monday.

The Misses Shipman, who have been visiting friends in town, have returned to their home in Waterbury.

Miss Edith Hughes has returned to Montreal; she has been stopping at Fred Preston's for the summer.

Charles and Will Mattocks, who have been spending a few weeks in town with their parents, have returned to Boston.

Amos Morse is rebuilding his dam.

George Smart has improved the appearance of his shop by a new combination shaving case.

The Barret Band will give a promenade concert at the town hall next Friday evening, Aug. 25.

The fall term at Phillips Academy commences next Monday, Harvey Burbank and Miss Nettie Stevens, teachers.

L. F. Beckwith from Chelsea, formerly of this place, will be at Danville Sept. 4, to remain one week to do all work appertaining to dentistry.

The concert given last Friday evening for the benefit of the Congregational choir was a success both musically and financially. The proceeds amounted to $30.00.

BARNET.

Dick Boardman is at home on a vacation.

Ira Blake of Boston is visiting at C. Q. Gilman's.

W. H. Burbank is making repairs on his residence.

C. Q. Gilman is building a new house for Alex. Somers.

Peter Goche has moved on to the Moses Johnson farm and will carry it on.

W. B. Gammell has returned from Boston where he has been during the last two months.

Henry H. Flanders of Newport, N. H., is visiting at his father-in-law's, Thomas Gillilan's.

Ralph Smith, who works at Springfield, Mass., is visiting at his uncle's, R. M. Johnson's.

L. M. Cade of Leominster, Mass., who has been absent some three years, is home on a visit.

Era Gibson is taking a vacation. Josephus Whitehill is taking his place in the creamery.

The Barret band has been engaged by the Ryegate Fair Company to furnish music during the fair.

The band will give a promenade concert at the town hall, Danville Green, on Friday, Aug. 25. All are cordially invited.

J. P. Laughlin has been at Wiers, N. H., during the past week manufacturing his wire initial pins, and reports business lively.

Rev. Jos. Boardman exchanged last Sunday with the Rev. Mr. Byington of Hardwick, who preached a very interesting sermon.

EAST BARNET.

Seaman Jewell and wife are visiting at A. Ammel's.

Rev. Mr. Buzzell of Passumpsic will preach here next Sunday.

Rev. Mr. Byington preached here last Sunday. There should have been more to hear him for his sermon was very interesting.

Tuesday morning, when the men that work with the steel-gang were going to Barnet on a hand-car, they met a freight train, and had just time to jump and escape themselves, but hand-car and dinner pails were thrown every which way.

WEST BARNET.

William Brock and family of Barnet are stopping at Lakeside Hotel.

Mrs. Dr. Hamilton of Waterbury, Ct., is here visiting her father, Rev. John Bole.

Rev. J. J. Hall preached on Sabbath morning in Barnet Center at the United Presbyterian church.

Our new creamery is receiving a fair share of patronage. Quite a number of farmers bring their milk here.

Mr. Judkins of South Peacham has purchased a building from Mr. Carter, where he will carry on the business of wagon and carriage building.

Rev. E. M. McFadden of Philadelphia, who has been supplying the pulpit of the Reformed Presbyterian church at this place, will preach for the last time next Sabbath. He leaves here to fulfill a month's engagement in Brooklyn, N. Y.

Rev. E. M. McFadden preached in the Presbyterian church, South Ryegate, Sunday, Aug. 13. The pulpit at West Barnet was occupied in the morning by Rev. Mr. McKinley of Barnet Center, and in the evening by Rev. J. J. Hall of South Ryegate.

The basket picnic of the West Barnet Young People's Society, held at Lakeside on Tuesday, the 13th, was quite a success. It is estimated that fully 1000 persons were in attendance. The following societies of Christian Endeavor were represented, having been invited to attend by the local society: Barnet, East Barnet, McIndoes, Ryegate, South Ryegate Reformed Presbyterian Society, South Ryegate Presbyterian Society, Peacham and Groton. Dinner was served for the ministers and their families in the grove. Among the ministers in attendance we noticed Rev. Gay of McIndoes, Rev. S. A. Jackson of South Ryegate, Rev. J. J. Hall of South Ryegate, Rev. Williams of Peacham, Rev. Boardman of Barnet, Rev. McKinley, Barnet Center, Rev. Woodruff of Jericho. After dinner, at the invitation of Rev. E. M. McFadden, chairman of committee of arrangements, the following ministers addressed those present: Revs. Gay, Woodruff, Hall and Jackson. The Barnet band discoursed excellent music during the day, and were hospitably entertained by William Brock, who generously volunteered to cater to their wants. Captain Moore was kept busy all day taking the pleasure seekers round the lake in his steamboat. The large assemblage dispersed about five o'clock, all seemingly well pleased with the day's outing.

EAST BURKE.

Clark Kirby of Charlestown, Mass., was here last week.

Mrs. May Burnham of Lakeport, N. H., is visiting at D. B. Gilson's.

J. P. Stafford has put on an addition to his barn, O. D. Young doing the work.

Mrs. F. A. Bowker of Saratoga, N. Y., is visiting her brother, D. W. Cushing.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Burpee and Etta Godding have been spending a few days at Barton.

E. A. Darling of the Fifth Avenue Hotel New York city is here for a two weeks' vacation.

Mr. Watson of Lawrence, Mass., has moved his family and taken possession of his new home, the D. B. Cushing place.

WEST BURKE.

The village has lots of company at the present time from the city.

Corn and oats promise well, but rather backward. Potatoes a fair crop, quality good.

Ed. Bundy had a very severe attack of hemorrhage of the lungs the last of last week, which has left him very weak.

The sidewalk fund raised lacks some thirty dollars of finishing up what was proposed to be done, and the committee are reconvening the village for additional funds.

J. L. House and wife of Beebe Plain, P. Q., have been visiting in West Burke last week. Reports the old Colby stand as one of his stopping places when he drove cattle to Boston sixty years ago and West Burke unknown.

EAST CONCORD AND VICINITY.

Miss Aldrich is visiting her uncle, Richard King.

Miss Jennie Vincent, who was sick last week, is convalescing.

A little child of Ed and Abbie Higgins is very sick at this writing.

Scott Carbee of Boston is visiting friends and relatives about here.

Miss Myra Temple, who has been sick since March, is not expected to live.

Mrs. Lillian McDonald is yet very sick. A council met her the 19th and pronounced her a very sick woman.

Austin Fisher and four other men returned from Umbagog. Lake with a catch of about 400 pounds of pickerel.

The Kemp Family show at Pratt's hall was a success and all that was advertised, entertaining as well as moral.

Fred Folsom is home from Barre granite shops, where he has been stone cutting the past four years; he will stay here four or five weeks.

James Fisher has concluded peddling and bought or rented the store of A. V. Vance and is prepared to serve the old customers with neatness and dispatch. We are sorry to lose Mr. Vance, as he was an obliging and courteous tradesman.

WEST CONCORD.

The West Concord Rushers play the Concord Corner nine at the Corner next Saturday.

John Temple, Thomas Moore and a Perkins boy are all very sick with typhoid fever at Concord Corner.

Mrs. John Richards and her sister, Mrs. Page of Boston are visiting with their sister Miss Caroline Hibbard.

The road men under the supervision of Albert Douglass are making some needed repairs in the streets of the village.

Walter Hinman, son of Charles Hinman of Boston, is visiting at his grandfather's, R. S. Hinman's of this place.

Dr. French has gone to the Maine lakes on a fishing trip. We expect some big fish stories when the doctor gets home.

John Richards, who died at Charleston, Mass., in 77th year, on the 6th of August, leaves a wife, daughter and grandchildren, the former being a sister of D. W. Hibbard of this place.

NORTH DANVILLE.

Farmers about here are busy cutting their grain this week.

H. B. Ward had a fine sheep killed recently by dogs.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellery Clark are moving to St. Johnsbury.

Martin Sanborn is visiting friends and relatives at Newport and Derby this week.

Miss Bess Wallace and brother Charles of Barnet are visiting friends in this place.

Miss Myra Carbee of Lowell, Mass., is visiting her sister, Mrs. William Russell.

There will be no service at the church next Sunday, as Rev. F. A. Palmer will attend the quarterly meeting at South Wheelock and remain over Sunday.

A party of fourteen went to Joe's pond last Wednesday, having a very enjoyable time. There was also another party to the same place Saturday, returning to the promenade concert at Danville in the evening, which was largely attended, and the North Danville band realized nearly $23.

A. E. Snelling has sold his place to Charlie Oakley. E. M. Massey has sold his farm to Seth Adams; price $1200, including hay crop. Mr. Massey has purchased of Mrs. Martha Harris her farm, paying $2500 for same, and Mrs. Harris has purchased of B. F. Badger his place at the village, price $600.

GREENSBORO.

Miss Whitney of Wells River and Mrs. Cutter of New Hampshire are guests at Mr. Guilds.

Rev. Mr. Moody and family of North Craftsbury are camping at the lake.

Mr. Curry and a friend from New York are stopping at Townsends.

Mr. Ranney has been at West Glover the past week holding a musical convention.

L. F. Babbitt and family of Northampton are visiting friends and relatives in town.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Spaulding of Fargo, N. D., visited at Mr. Randall's the past week.

Prof. French of Yale has joined the ranks of New Haven's teachers who summer awhile at Greensboro.

Miss Mabel Guild is attending the teacher's examination at Barton. She will teach in the Wm. Simpson district again this fall.

W. S. Calderwood, his father and mother and sister, Mrs. C. Haines, were called to St. Johnsbury by the death of Dr. Calderwood.

Mr. Crane has been improving his grounds by laying gravel walks.—The Congregational society are grading up the parsonage grounds and making other necessary improvements.

GLOVER.

The band goes to Willoughby the 29th to escort the G. A. R. post.

W. N. Aldrich, the proprietor of Meadow Brook creamery, is very sick with typhoid fever.

The teachers who attended the summer school at Barton report a very profitable session.

Miss Edna Payer and her sister, Mrs. Will Locke of Irasburg, started for the World's Fair Tuesday.

EAST HARDWICK.

Mrs. Charles Kramer of Boston visited her aunt, Mrs. H. E. Blossom, on Tuesday.

Rev. Byington of this place exchanged with the Rev. Boardman of Barnet on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stevens of Johnson spent the Sabbath with Mr. and Mrs. Johnson.

The concert by the Boylston Quartette last Thursday evening was a fine affair, but the weather interfered somewhat with the attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. Sawyer of Newbury were in town last week visiting their daughter, Mrs. Arthur Cheever; they returned home Saturday.

H. A. Babbitt went to St. Johnsbury last Friday, called there by the illness of his father and mother. Their many friends will be glad to learn they were better on Wednesday.

L. F. Babbitt and his daughters, Florence and Clair, are spending a part of their vacation with Mrs. Babbitt, who is still with her sick father, J. H. Hancock. Mr. Hancock is very ill, and there is but little, if any, hope of his recovery.

LYNDON.

Mrs. J. A. LaPorte is spending a couple of weeks with her parents at Morrisville.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Wilcomb started Tuesday morning for a ten days' carriage drive to the west side of the state.

W. J. Sanborn and wife, formerly of St. Johnsbury, and later of Biddeford, Me., are spending a few days at Mrs. E. J. McMullen's.

One of the finest horses in the country is a beautiful Percheron two-year-old belonging to T. H. Vail. He is of a dark steel gray color and weighs 1470 lbs.

The Y. P. S. C. E. held a pleasant social last Friday evening at the Congregational vestry. Cake and ice cream were served and the society realized $7.60 toward the purchase of some new singing books.

Miss Marion Kinney of Somersworth, N. H., is visiting at J. C. Eaton's—Harry Clark and wife and daughter of Barre are stopping at M. H. Everett's.—Miss Emma McMullen arrived home Saturday to remain for the present.—Miss Daisy McMullen of Fitchburg, Mass., has been visiting her grandmother and other friends.

Miss Florence Chase, daughter of Henry Chase, starts for Germany this (Thursday) morning. She goes in company with Miss Charlotte Strickland, formerly of Bradford, who is teacher in a young ladies' school. Miss Chase is a young lady of energy and ability and will improve to the utmost this opportunity to study music and German.

LYNDON CENTER.

John E. Sanborn of Chicago is visiting relatives and friends here.

Mr. Stanford of Portland is visiting his mother, Mrs. J. Parks.

The ladies' aid held a social and supper at the church last Thursday night.

Herbert J. and W. J. Willard of Boston are visiting their mother, Mrs. A. J. Willard.

Mrs. M. A. Campbell of Sutton is spending a few weeks with her son, E. M. Campbell.

E. H. Hinds has bought his father's house, which is about a quarter of a mile south of this village.

E. H. Hurd is quite extensively repairing his store. He has dug a cellar and let down the building about three feet.

Prof. W. L. Bunker, who has been teacher of bookkeeping, arithmetic and banking at Lyndon Institute for the past seven years, has accepted a similar position at Worcester, Mass., and will enter upon his new duties next month. Prof. Bunker leaves many friends here who regret his departure and wish him abundant success in Worcester.

LYNDONVILLE.

Schools about town begin Monday, Sept. 4.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Parker attended the coaching parade at Bethlehem Tuesday.

Quite a delegation from this place attended the Odd Fellows' exercises at St. Johnsbury last Saturday.

The little child of E. Currier who was reported ill with diphtheria last week is better and it is thought it will recover.

The Boston Stars played a game of ball with the local club here last Tuesday, beating them by a score of 13 to 5.

Michael Bennett suicided recently by hanging at the Windsor town farm.

John Hubbard's house and barn, near Belkows Falls, were struck by lightning and burned last Saturday night, with all the live stock in the barn.

Mrs. Fred Leland, wife of merchant Leland of Chester Depot, fell through a scuttle eight feet to the cellar bottom, striking on her head and shoulders. Her recovery is doubtful.

LUNENBURG.

Mrs. Calvin Smith is very sick.

The Congregational circle meets with Mrs. James Smith on Thursday of this week.

Several gentlemen from St. Johnsbury and Whitefield were in town last Monday to attend the funeral of Mr. King.

Katherine Silsby, who has been sick for some time, is now much better, we are happy to say.

Mr. and Mrs. Hale returned from Lewiston last Saturday, where they have been for two weeks.

Mrs. Dickerman's two nephews, who have been spending two weeks here, returned to their home in Danville last Saturday.

Mrs. Smith of Portland, who has been spending several weeks with her sister, Mrs. Barnard, returned to her home last Saturday.

McINDOES FALLS.

Mrs. Laird and daughter are visiting Mrs. Eugene Fields.

Miss Gertie Little of Woodsville was at Mrs. Chase's last week.

The Misses Ella and Flora Winch are visiting friends at Corinth.

Seth Ford attended the coaching parade at the mountains on Tuesday.

Ray Finel of Minneapolis visited his grandmother, Mrs. R. Bruce, this week.

Darwin Mason has been appointed administrator of William Gleason's estate.

Mrs. E. C. Gilchrist, who has been at W. H. Gilchrist's, returned to her home at Colebrook last Saturday.

Prof. B. J. Simonds, who has been here the past few months, returns to Pottsville, Pa., on Monday next, where he has a fine position in a high school.

Rev. Mr. Gay started on Monday morning for a trip West. He will visit relatives in the central states, spending about four weeks. The pulpit will be supplied during his absence.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Morgan and two children of Manchester arrived Thursday of last week. Mr. Morgan returned home on Saturday. Mrs. Morgan will spend a few weeks with her mother, Mrs. Houghton.

Mrs. Emily Annis Mulliken, who has been sick for the past two months, passed away on Thursday morning, the 17th. She was married to Drury Mulliken in 1849 and was 72 years old at the time of her death. Funeral services were held on Saturday at the home, conducted by Rev. Mr. Langford, assisted by Revs. Gay of McIndoes and Draper of Monroe. Her husband and two daughters survive her.

Mrs. Morrill, who has been at Danville for the past few weeks, has returned home.—Mr. and Mrs. Bridgman of Northampton are at Mrs. Bridgman's mother's, Mrs. J. C. Gleason's.—The Misses Carpenter of South Ryegate are at their aunt's, Mrs. Dr. Gibson's.—Mrs. Montgomery of East Hardwick spent last week with her son, Charles Montgomery.—Mr. and Mrs. Howard of Haverhill, N. H., visited Mrs. L. M. Smith last week.—Mrs. Mary Harvey Dow of Spokane, Wash., is spending the summer at her old home.

PEACHAM AND EAST PEACHAM.

Some of our schools open next Monday.

L. J. Eldridge was in town last week at C. L. Brown's.

Will Morse is painting and otherwise repairing his buildings.

Will Hopkins is visiting at his old home in East Peacham.

There will be religious services in the school house on Penny St. next Sabbath. Clarence Morse and friend Mr. Gregory spent a few days in town last week.

Charlie Clarke has finished his vacation, and returned to his work in Boston.

Miss Mary J. Way and Miss Maroe Watts are visiting the World's Fair this week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gracey are visiting their son Orris and daughter Mrs. Wilson, near Boston.

Mrs. Joe Sargent arrived in East Peacham last Saturday night for a visit to friends and relatives.

Quite a number from this town attended the Christian Endeavor picnic at Harvey's pond last week.

Miss Alice Williams had her visit in the western part of the state and returned to her home in Peacham.

George Bruce and daughter Jennie of Woburn, Mass., are visiting at Mrs. Rhapha Williams' at the corner.

Mrs. Laura Ferren and child from New Hampshire are visiting at Robert Esdon's and other places in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Whittell of Randolph are visiting at Mrs. Whittell's father's, Mr. Strowbridge at the corner.

Miss Sarah Williams leaves Thursday for Boston and Saturday she sails for Germany to take a two years course in music.

Hiram Moody is putting a new piazza across the front of his house, which will very much improve it; he is also painting.

Loren E. Partridge, who has been spending his vacation at home through the summer, returns to his school in Hinesburgh next Friday.

In spite of the poor weather last Thursday quite a crowd gathered on Mount Lookout and also Saturday a small party picnicked on the mount.

NORTH PEACHAM.

On Tuesday, Sept. 19, there will be an auction sale of the personal property of Scott M. Farnum & Wife. The property includes a great number of wagons, sleighs, harnesses, blacksmith's tools, etc., besides the Farnum house and carriage shops. The auction will take place at 1 o'clock.

RYEGATE.

Ned Lyons, who has been at work in the creamery, accidentally got hurt last week, and is now under the care of the doctor.

There are four painters at the new block this week. The barber shop in this building is open Wednesday and Saturday evenings.

Miss Flora Smith of Boston started for West Hebron N. Y., this week to visit her friend Miss Margaret Wiley, before returning to her home.

The creamery at this place is getting a very enviable reputation, getting more orders from some of the best dealers in Boston than it can fill.

The Ryegate Granite Works Co. have placed a very pretty monument in the cemetery at this place for H. G. Miller; and, by the way, the old dilapidated fence on the west side of the yard is being replaced by something better. The Webbers are doing the stone work and Mr. Holmes the carpenter work.

The birthday party of Ethel Morrison and Annabel McLam, at the house of W. T. McLam last week, was a very pleasant affair, Mr. McLam presenting his daughter with a gold watch as a birthday present.

William J. Symes and wife contemplate visiting friends in the West soon, and expect to spend a few days at the World's Fair. It is hoped the trip will do Mrs. Symes good, as she has been in quite feeble health for some time past.

WALDEN.

C. A. Kittredge is in Littleton this week on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Lemuel Shaw are visiting relatives in Barre this week.

Harley